HISTORY & HOW IT WORKS

Launched in Thailand in 2005, the Awards has expanded to reward the most outstanding developers, developments and design across Asia.

Credible, fair and transparent, PropertyGuru Asia Property Awards offers a free-to-enter system and is an unrivalled showcase of the region's real estate industry, boosting awareness and highlighting top quality developers, projects and innovations. It shines a spotlight on the high calibre work within the Asian real estate industry, encompassing construction, development, architecture and interior design, as well as green and sustainable building practices.

With a professionally run and fully transparent judging system, which is supervised by BDO, one of the world's largest auditing and accountancy networks, it has for more than decade now helped celebrate and promote the region's real estate industry on the world stage.

All entrants are nominated by a third party, including peers, professionals and consumers, and, if eligible, are rigorously and fairly judged by an independent panel of industry experts. Shortlisted companies can therefore be extremely proud of the huge achievement of setting the benchmark for their nation's real estate sector and, if successful, will go on to represent their country at PropertyGuru Asia Property Awards Grand Final in Bangkok in November 2018.

JUDGING

The central judging panel meets, in the presence of a BDO representative, to discuss, select and agree upon a long list entrants per category.

Local site visit teams are arranged, which may include members of the central panel of judges, to visit the site of each long-listed development to meet with senior executives and conduct a detailed inspection. If site visits for regional areas cannot be arranged, video presentations are obtained from entrants.

The local site visit teams submit their scoring of the developments visited to BDO, for presentation at the final judges meeting. All site visit and central panel judges must declare any conflict of interest with entrants and are refused from scoring / voting on entries with which they have a conflict of interest.

At the final judges meeting, in the presence of a BDO representative, the central panel agrees upon the final shortlist, which comprises one Winner and up to four Highly Commended businesses.

The organisers publicly announce the shortlist one month before each Gala Dinner. The Winners will be announced at the Gala Dinner.
