OPEN WATER SWIMMING IN THAILAND

Open water swimming is one of the fastest growing segments of the mass participation sports sector in Thailand.

We have a number of Sponsor and Partner packages available for two of the most prestigious events in this category: Oceanman Krabi 2019 and Thailand Swimathon 2019 - both of which are expected to attract thousands of participants from Thailand and abroad.

OCEANMAN KRABI 2019

2ND - 3RD NOVEMBER

Oceanman Krabi 2019 will kick-start the high season with one of the most anticipated mass participation sports events in the Kingdom.

Part of the global Oceanman Series, which features 17 races around the world including: Colombia, Cyprus, France, Greece, Italy, Malaysia, Mexico, Russia, Spain, Switzerland, Thailand, Turkey and Ukraine.

Oceanman Krabi 2019 will see participants from around the world compete across three distances:

10km Oceanman
5km Half Oceanman
2km Sprint
plus a 1km Océankids race...

The highest qualifying swimmers in the Oceanman and Half Oceanman categories qualifying for the Oceanman World Championship 2020.

THAILAND SWIMATHON 2019

7TH - 8TH DECEMBER

One of the region's most popular open water swimming events, Thailand Swimathon 2019, will take place at Ban Amphur Beach on Thailand's Eastern Seaboard. The event is popular with swimmers from across Asia and attracts thousands of participants who come back year after year.

Known for its high quality execution and for being one of the races with the highest completion rates, Thailand Swimathon 2019 will see swimmers compete across four distances: 10km, 6km, 2km and 1km.

With road races taking up a large proportion of mass participation sports events in Thailand, open water swimming events like Oceanman Krabi 2019 and Thailand Swimathon 2019 are on the rise and attract increasing numbers of participants and spectators.

Due to their water-based nature, these events are held close to popular seaside resorts and welcome a high proportion of spectators and holiday makers.
